

Akādemi presents

FRAME BY FRAME

A SYMPOSIUM ON THE DANCE OF INDIAN CINEMA AND ITS TRANSITION INTO BOLLYWOOD DANCING

Akādemi presents

FRAME BY FRAME

A SYMPOSIUM ON THE DANCE OF INDIAN CINEMA AND ITS TRANSITION INTO BOLLYWOOD DANCING

Monday July 13, 2009

2-7pm

Linbury Studio Theatre at the Royal Opera House,
Floral Street, London WC2E 9DD

Admission: £50/£40 concessions

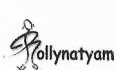

Tickets: ROH Box Office on 020 7304 4000 & www.roh.org.uk

For further event details: www.akademi.co.uk & www.southasiandance.org.uk. Tel: 020 7691 3210.

Bollywood glamour meets salon sophistication in this half-day symposium charting the history and evolution of the dance of Indian cinema. Find out what drives this booming global industry at Frame by Frame; a symposium covering key themes, including: The globalisation of Indian cinema; what defines Indian cinema and how is it different to world cinema; a history and tribute section on the dance of Indian cinema throughout the ages; the economy of Bollywood dance and a personal perspective of an eminent filmmaker.

Featured guests include: Gurinder Chadha (OBE), Prof. Lord Desai, Prof. Rachel Dwyer, Nasreen Munni Kabir, Keith Khan, Nina Nannar, Dr. Sangita Shresthova, Parminder Vir (OBE) and performances from many eminent dance artists.

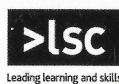

Come join us for this day of informative talks, sharp debate; spectacular screenings and performances by some of the UK's top dance celebrities. This is your chance to experience and celebrate Bollywood dance from the inside out.

hyphen
films

Mayfair
Media Club

This event is inspired by the DVD "I Am a Bollywood Dancer" produced by River Cultures. Akademi reserves the right to change the programme.

Film strip image ©iStockphoto.com/Hille Bouma